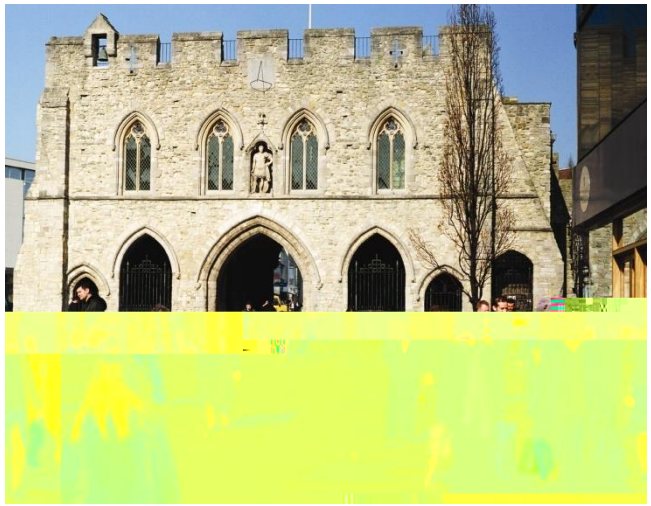
A learning partnership

Southampton Solent University and Norges Kreative Høyskole



SSU and NKH

Progression Routes from SSU to NKH

Graphic Design
Photography
Animation

Interior Design
Illustration
Journalism

Music Design
Film
Advertising

In total an average of 70/80 students from NKH a year

Quality Assurance

Partnership Agreement

- 3 year life

Admission agreements

- Overseas partnership Notification Statement (OPNS)
- Direct entry
- Portfolio, interview or essay
- English levels

Academic transition from diploma to degree

Mapping-Curriculum 3 stages

1.Quality Assurance

2. International manager/course leader

3. SSU/NKH course leaders

Academic transition from diploma to degree

Mapping between academics

Teaching and learning outcomes of both course documents

Technology

Terminology

Industry communication

Academic transition from diploma to degree

Relationship between Academics

Building the Partnership/exchange

Joint exercises and visits

Workshops and lectures at

NKH and SSU

NKH student Visits to SSU

Vocation to Vocation (post admissions)

Post Admissions - Induction

Induction-2 weeks prior to all students onsite

Meet the course team

Induction Project

Induction workshops

Support Systems

Assessments

Vocation to Vocation (post admissions)

Post Admissions - Post BA study

Portfolio building

Online Support

MA Study

Industry Exchange

Support Systems

Social networking

Successes and Challenges

Successes

NKH students work hard and perform well

Many graduate with 1st degrees

(100% pass rate on Interior Design Decoration.)

Student exchange of knowledge

Excellent employment figures

BA(Hons) Advertising graduates and D&AD 2012 winners Remi Lohne and Kim Thuen (originally from NKF Bergen)

Successes and Challenges

Successes tutor collaboration

Excellent working partnership
Sharing of information
Assessing levels of attainment
Regular discussions on the profession
Regular updates on industry standards
Exchange of research

Successes and Challenges

Challenges

- Research Skills
- Time management
- English

BA(Hons) Advertising graduates and D&AD 2012 winners Remi Lohne and Kim Thuen (originally from NKF Bergen)

Thank you for listening

Questions?